MEET THE EDITOR

of Utility Fleet Professional Magazine

Kate Wade
EDITORIAL DIRECTOR

Kate has been shaping Utility Fleet Professional magazine's editorial content since 2011. With a background in journalism, publishing, and legal compliance, she brings a unique ability to translate complex fleet and safety issues into clear, actionable insights. Kate partners with industry experts and UFP's advisory board to create articles that help utility fleet leaders improve performance, safety, and operational excellence.

In addition, Kate hosts the Utility Fleet Professional Podcast, where she engages top industry leaders in conversations on critical topics—from fleet electrification and vehicle technology to maintenance strategies, regulatory compliance, and workforce challenges.

OUR MISSION AT UFP:

Our mission is to advance fleet safety, efficiency, and innovation in the utility industry by delivering practical, expert-driven knowledge and strategies. Through trusted content, industry insights, and education, we empower fleet leaders and utility professionals to optimize performance, extend asset life cycles, and keep crews safe, mobile, and productive.
